The safari starts tonight with a clogging-filled evening of dancing to wild jungle beats and a chance to see some rare and unusual nocturnal wildlife.

On Saturday our safari will continue with a not-too-early wake up and a fast foot-pounding journey through early afternoon and the heat of the day. We'll take some welcome breaks in the shade along the way.

In the evening, we'll enjoy a great show of skilled native clog dancers, followed by a night of jungle dancing and a late night celebration party with the whole clogging tribe.

Then we'll swing in to Sunday and cut through the deepest part of the jungle until the end of our journey brings us to the safari proving grounds known as the Die-Hard dance. This is truly the finest hour for those few of us who've survived the test and shown ourselves fit!

Take heed on the trail, my friends, and Clog on, Cloggers! Clog on!

- Vendors are available in the main hall and registration area throughout the weekend.
- We hope that you have a GREAT time.
- Don't forget to fill out an evaluation sheet to help us improve where needed.
- Please help with some clean-up on Sunday before heading home. At 12:15 pm clearing starts in the Easy Hall.
